Editor, Duxbury Clipper:

Walter Read, 226 Gurnet Rd., "senior citizen," has been doing what he calls his "civic duty" — shoveling out hydrants in vicinity of his home and immediate neighbors. He has been doing this (when Mother Nature dictates and too many this season) for years, especially since on inquiry to Duxbury Fire Department he was informed this "shoveling" was not in their contract!

(Town Manager, please note!) Another item: Some hydrants have "witness stakes" (enables finding them
